

Thoughts regarding the Transfer of Technology from Academia to Industry

Rafi Nave
VP Research and Development
Given Imaging Israel

The presentation will elaborate on the underlying motivation for technology transfer from the Academia to the Industry. The challenges involved in the process and ways to overcome them. Several examples will illustrate the advantages of such collaboration. A few suggestions on how to enhance such collaboration will be outlined.